

université de BORDEAUX

Bordeaux PharmacoEpi Festival, 9th edition

25, 26, 27 May 2020

Venue:

Bordeaux University, School of law Pey-Berland, Amphi Ellul
Bordeaux, France

The Bordeaux PharmacoEpi team is happy to announce the Ninth Bordeaux Pharmacoepidemiology Festival.
Over three days, world-class experts will come to Bordeaux to talk of the topics of their choice.

Monday 25 MAY 2020

- 9:00 Jeffrey Aronson (Oxford, UK)
Drug shortages: definitions, trends, causes, harms, solutions
- 14:00 Krista Huybrechts (Boston, US)
Using Big Data to Inform Big Decisions regarding Medication Use in Pregnancy

Tuesday 26 MAY 2020

- 9:00 Rosa Gini (Florence, Italy)
Study variables in multi-database pharmacoepidemiology studies
- 14:00 Nicholas Moore (Bordeaux, France)
Pharmacoepidemiology & Pharmacovigilance: The Next Chapter
- 17:15 Free social event

Wednesday 27 MAY 2020

- 9:00 Christophe Tzourio (Bordeaux, France) and Yuan Ma (Boston, US)
Brain under pressure: new targets to mitigate hypertension-related brain diseases
- 14:00 Emmanuel Bacry (Paris, France)
Something about Health Data Hub: title subject TBA
- 16:30 Nicholas Moore (Bordeaux, France), General Public Conference
Des données de santé, mais pour quoi faire ?

Presentation titles subject to change at the whim of the speakers. Date and time may be changed within the festival. Stay tuned for the latest information. Number of participants limited to 150: first come, first serve.

Registration fees
Free 0 €	Student 69 €	Public professionals 249€	Private professionals 399 €
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fellows of ISPE Honorary members of ISO P Epidemiology and pharmacoepidemiology Master students from Bordeaux University (including Eu2P Master students) 	Other students	Academic, regulator	Industry

For registration, send an email to bpe-festival@u-bordeaux.fr (website: <https://www.bordeauxpharmacoepi.eu/bpe-festival>)